

Charity

At Connections, we believe in doing good for others. For that reason, we are known to hold charity events whenever the option arises. Most recently, in 2008 we held a Garage Sale for Breast Cancer where all of our staff contributed in the sale, whether it was donating items or baking goods, at the end of the day Connections matched the profits and donated it all to our cause.